

Robert Said What?

Rights of the Parliamentary Law: Majority, Minority, Absentees, Individual Members, All of These

From the Charlotte County Parliamentarian Unit

Early Edition November 1, 2017

From the desk of Sam King, CCPU President:

How many times have we said, "I really need to study and pass the RP test?" Let's quit saying it and start studying. Oh no, I can't do that, I need a study group. I can't do it by myself...whoa,  the excuses and let's start planning!

Attached are four (4) articles related to the exam. Three of the attachments are related to passing the exam and none of their study concepts may be the 'right' one for you. Those of us with the desire to pass the RP test need to start thinking of how to obtain our personal goal of being a RP.

After the November 9th meeting, Joyce's Teaching Moments will be given by Sam King on the RP test. The Unit used to host a weekly review session on the RP test. The question regarding study classes is: which day of the week would be your first choice and which day would be your second choice?

Get started today by reading the articles that are attached to this email and bring your study day preferences and ideas to the November meeting. If you are not going to be at the meeting, please email Joyce Gleason your information at: joycegle@earthlink.net
