

Robert Said What?

Rights of the Parliamentary Law: Majority, Minority, Absentees, Individual Members, All of These

From the Charlotte County Parliamentarians Unit

February 1, 2018

From the desk of Sam King, CCPU President

In anticipation of the upcoming changes to the testing procedures to become a Registered Parliamentarian (RP), CCPU study classes started mid-January. Joyce Gleason, our Educational Chair, is determined to see our unit have more RP's! The class meets every Monday morning at the FOP Hall from 9-11 AM.

The cost to join the class is $10 for incidentals, coffee, and support in the learning process (priceless!). If you are considering taking the PR exam, call Joyce at: 941-637-5921 to sign up for the class.

Practical Application classes started on January 18th and will continue until February 22nd, at the Fraternal Order of Police Hall in Port Charlotte. Members find your Practical Application book, plan to attend, and learn! There will be four classes in February – every Thursday morning from 9 - noon.

The Executive Board, led by Libby Curnow, will be presenting the budget for the coming year at the March meeting. Look for it with the March RSWhat? newsletter.

The minutes (draft) from the meeting of January 11, 2018, are attached. Please take the time to read the minutes before the March meeting.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR THE NEXT UNIT MEETING!

Thursday, March 8th at 9:30 - 11:30 am

Joyce's Teaching Moments will be held immediately after the meeting.

FYI: The Georgia State Parliamentarians are holding an educational workshop on February 24th.
