Are you ready to instruct? We are in need of CCPU members to help in planning and providing presentations for the topics that our community needs and often requests. Can you help?? Team-teaching, short lessons that can be combined with other lessons, sharing what you know.....the possibilities are endless. And we need you. Contact Joyce Gleason, RP (joyglee16@gmail.com)

Consulting to the Community Do you know of a local group or institution that is interested in Robert's Rules instruction ? CCPU offers fee-based customized programs to community groups. Contact Joyce Gleason RP (joyglee16@gmail.com) or Sam King PRP (samkingprp@gmail.com) to discuss your needs.

Selected Topics for our membership and the public

To share Robert's with the community, a short series of hour-long classes will now be offered in the spring for CCPU members and also open to the public. Classes may be taken in sequence or individually.

All are FREE.

Suggested topics are the following:

"Robert's Rules of Order Really Works!"

"Agenda vs. Order of Business -- What's the Difference?"

"How Bylaws Assist the Functioning of Your Organization"

Note: CCPU is seeking a location for the series. It may be offered online.
