CCPU meets Thursday, November 13 at 9:30 a.m. ZOOM only.

Our business meeting will be followed by Sam King's presentation and instruction about an AI teaching tool. Please join us to learn what happens when the world of parliamentary procedure education and AI meet!

The Zoom link will be emailed next week.

Welcome Luceal Curry! Luceal Curry is our new Education Committee Chair and therefore a member of our CCPU Executive Board. She has been working since the summer to schedule speakers and schedule classes for the upcoming year. Luceal has been a CCPU member for several years and feels that her parliamentary knowledge has been a vital part of her membership in several organizations, including CCPU! A special thanks to Joyce Gleason, previous Education Committee Chair, who has provided guidance and assistance to Luceal in this new role. Thank you, Joyce, for being such a leader of all our educational efforts in our community!

Practical Application of Robert Rules (PARR) six-week series of classes begins on Tuesday, January 13, 2026 at PGICA. 9-11:30 am. Registration details will be opening soon. Former students attend free.
